

Press Release

Courtyard Bistro Tea House

April 29, 2015, Beijing

The eagerly anticipated Courtyard Bistro Tea House opened its doors on 3rd March 2015. This event signifies a unique and sophisticated enhancement to the already popular Courtyard Bistro. Open year-round, the Courtyard Bistro Tea House serves as a great gathering spot for friends and loved ones alike and provides a calm and peaceful environment while showcasing the finest freshly brewed local Chinese teas. Situated just off the West Lounge of the hotel, the Courtyard Bistro Tea House offers daily tea ceremonies accompanied by traditional, tasty Chinese tea snacks. The in-house tea master will guide patrons through Chinese tea history that looks back on over 4,000 years of excellence. Bookings are essential and tea ceremonies, which last approximately 90minutes, are priced from RMB150.00 per person based on a minimum of two persons, with a maximum of twelve.

Tea-drinking is an integral part of Chinese culture. As the original producer of tea, China is renowned for its skills in planting and making tea. The development and promotion of tea has been one of China's principal contributions to the world.

Decorated with ancient-style wooden furniture and Chinese ink paintings, the Courtyard Bistro Tea House is filled with state-of-the-art equipment. This ambience provides the perfect setting for those wanting to experience true Chinese tea culture.

Serving a variety of different teas, including green tea, black tea, Pu-er tea and white tea, the Courtyard Bistro Tea House offers a truly authentic traditional tea ceremony.

Patrons have the opportunity to learn about brewing and drinking tea while enjoying the rich flavors of locally produced teas and exploring the many health benefits of Chinese tea.

Red Wall Garden Hotel – Home of the Courtyard Bistro

The Red Wall Garden Hotel is an oasis of tranquility in the very heart of the vibrant city of Beijing. It is located in ShijiaHutong, one of the city's most historic neighborhoods. A traditional Chinese courtyard hotel invoking the past, yet replete with modern facilities; individually appointed guest rooms, featuring ultra-luxury DUX beds, wooden flooring, en-suite bathrooms and amenities such as large flat screen TV, complimentary WI-FI throughout the hotel and private In-Room-Bar. All rooms have air-conditioning & heaters. The "Red Wall Garden Boutique Hotel Experience" emotionally connects our guests with the intense historical, cultural and artistic life of authentic and historic Beijing.

Operated and Managed by STEM™ - "True Boutique Hotel" company

Contact : Ms. Lisa Cao – Director of Sales & Marketing lisa.cao@rwghotel.com

Media Contact: Ms. Echo Gao echo.gao@empower-china.com

For Bookings: RSVP by phone or walk-in to inquire

Address: No.41, ShijiaHutong, Dongcheng District, Beijing, 100010

Telephone: +86 10 5169 2222

Business Hours: 11:30am-23:00pm

Email: sales@rwghotel.com

Website: www.redwallgardenhotel.com